

Introducing Random Acts of Marketing

We are a small technology resource and design firm located in Big Spring, Texas. Our approach to any project delivers solutions quickly. With nearly 60 years of combined data processing and information technology industry experience coupled with creative minds and innovative solutions, we take your projects to the next level. From computer solutions large and small to full blown publication design, we'll manage your project as if it were our own. You can count on it!